Maria Holme is a partner of Mannheimer Swartling and a member of the firm's Mergers and Acquisitions practice group. Maria has a broad practice covering a range of private M&A matters, including acquisitions and divestments, joint ventures and complex carve-outs, as well as providing ongoing corporate advice. Her client base includes financial and industrial clients, including several of Sweden's household names, and she has recently handled a number of complex cross-border matters for recurring clients in the telecoms, wellness and private equity industries. Further repeat mandates from private equity clients include deal structuring and management incentive programmes. Maria is actively engaged in teaching at the firm and regularly lectures university law students as part of the firm's Training Programme, amongst other training commitments.
