Fredrik Svensson has broad international compliance and transaction experience. His practice involves matters relating to anti-corruption, international sanctions, third-party management, anti-money laundering, business human rights, and other regulatory matters, including ESG. Fredrik has participated in a number of internal investigations concerning potential regulatory or criminal violations.

Fredrik has also significant transaction experience from banking & finance and M&A, and often takes part in the strategic decision that leads up to an investment or divestment. He routinely acts for clients carrying out ESG compliance due diligence in M&A transactions.

Fredrik also is active in pro bono work and devotes significant time to the firm's study and mentorship program Studera för livet (Eng: Study for life) and is the founder of the scholarship foundation Avstamp för juridiska studier (Eng: Kick-off for legal studies). Fredrik also sits on the board of directors of Business and Human Rights Lawyers Association, he is a member of the Nomination Committee of the Swedish Bar Association and he is Sweden's representative in the Council of National Representation of the Association of European Business.

Fredrik was also the managing partner for the firm's Moscow office up until 2022.
